What is Innovation?

Innovation is something you create to be useful in your community, something that you build to even help the world! For example: One man thought of uses the waste of plastic and basically recycleit into our roads. He has only done this in the uk so far but that could become a whole to way to make roads and not fill our landfills with wasted plastic.

New